Second Car of Scrap Was Shipped Tues.

Collection In Canyon Now Has Reached 300,000 lbs. With More Coming Daily

Canyon's scrap collection has grown to approximately 300,000 pounds.

The first carload of 82,000 pounds was shipped last week to Colorado. The second carload of 87,000 pounds was shipped Tuesday to Cleveland, Ohio, by order of the government. All scrap metal is under the strict supervision of the government and dealers must ship it to smelters which need the scrap.

A. A. Kirkpatrick is handling the scrap after it is collected by Jeff Wallace at the Consumer Fuel Association. Mr. Kirkpatrick states that he is processing scrap which will make about two more carloads.

Metal has been coming in rapidly this week. Tuesday was one of the biggest days of the campaign.

All citizens of Randall county are urged to bring in their scrap metal at once.

Dr. R. A. Neblett Leaves Nov. 3 to Military Service

CAPT. R. A. NEBLETT

Dr. R. A. Neblett has received his call to join the Medical Corps of the Army. He will report to the induction station at Lubbock on Nov. 3 for physical examination and will then go to Fort Sam Houston at San Atonio for further preparations for overseas duties.

Dr. Neblett volunteered in the medical unit of the University of Texas in May. The unit is designed for overseas duty with the American army. Dr. Neblett was given the rank of Captain.

In preparation for his leaving, the Neblett Hospital was closed on Sept. 1. Dr. Neblett and Dr. Robert P. Jarrett have maintained offices at the hospital building since then. Dr. Jarrett is preparing to open offices on the south side of the square.

The accounts of Dr. Neblett and the Neblett Hospital will be moved to the Burrow Lumber Company on November 1.

No Calls Made Absentee Ballots Nov. Election

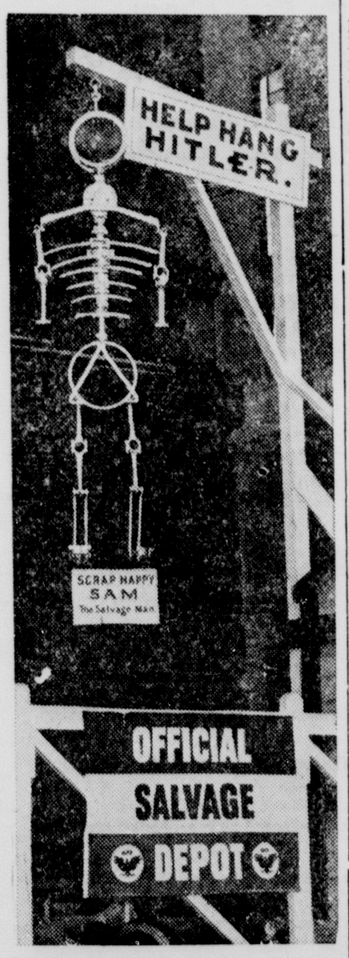
There has not been a single absentee vote cast for the November election.

Ballots were available October 14, the first day for absentee voting, but so far no Randall county citizen has expressed interest in casting such a vote.

October 30 is the last day on which absentee votes may be cast for the general election on Nov. 3.

Billy Walker of Samnorwood spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Maxwell. He has been stationed in South Carolina.

Hang Hitler High!



HITLER WAS MADE of scrap metal and hung high as kids gathered scrap metal to help win the war. The school kids of Randall county are doing their part in a big way.

Hundreds of Keys Are Brought to the News Office

Keys by the hundreds were piled into the display window at the News office Saturday as the final wind up came for the key gathering campaign.

Fifty pounds of old keys were added by the people of Canyon to the collection of precious metal to help win the war.

Keys of every kind and description were in the collection. Some were new—never having been used. Some were old and rusty. Some were tiny; others were large and cumbersome. Some were of ordinary metal, which had no more value than just scrap meetal; others were pure brass—or rather looked like pure brass to the layman who knows little about metals.

The people of this section made a fine response to the call for keys, and enough metal was secured to make a lot of ammunition to fire at the Japs.

The News is very grateful for these keys, and if every town in the nation sent in keys in like proportion to Canyon, the campaign was certainly a great success. The thing about it is that keys are so small that most people overlooked their value when collecting scrap. But when a community piles up old or discarded keys the pile grows to a considerable size.

2 Men Accepted; Others Volunteer In Armed Service

Two men were accepted Saturday at Lubbock at the Induction Station and will go to Fort Sill on October 30 to start their military training. These men were:

Elmo Murry Wesley and Benjamin Franklin Thigpen.

Ernest Lee Penn was rejected for physical disabilities. Charles William Conner, who had volunteered in the air corps, was inducted in this call.

Next Thursday afternoon another group of men will go for physical examination. About half of the 31 men in this call have volunteered.

Notices are being mailed to 31 more men to appear for physical examination on November 10.

The following were volunteers during the past week:

Roy Neal Byrd, Jr., air corps.

Clyde Miller Teague, reserve corps.

H. D. White, air corps.

Lloyd Walker McKee, Marines.

Neil Singleton, Jr., has volunteered in the army.

Canning Sugar Is Available According Needs

Sugar for canning is still available to those who need it, states T. S. Stevenson, clerk of the War Price and Rationing Board.

The administration has left with the local boards the closing dates for issuing certificates for canning sugar. The local board is advised there will be demand for canning sugar for apples and cranberries up to the end of this year.

HAD OPERATIONS

R. A. Burrus underwent a major operation in an Amarillo hospital.

Mrs. S. E. Jennings has undergone an operation in another Amarillo hospital.

Sgt and Mrs. Bill Patke returned to their home in Brownwood Saturday after spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Boyce.

Canyon Boy Was Given Honors

Lester A. Smith, Jr., In Fight With Japs Receives Recognition For Services

SGT. LESTER A. SMITH, JR.

Word was received Monday that Sgt. Lester A. Smith, Jr., of Canyon has been awarded an Air Medal for "heroism for extraordinary achievement in air action." The announcement was made by Major General Simon B. Buckner, Jr., at headquarters of the Alaska Defense Command.

Sergeant Smith enlisted in the Air Corps Aug. 3, 1940. He was sent to Alaska last year as a radio operator. Action for which the award was given was not disclosed.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Smith, who live southwest of Canyon, first heard the news on a news broadcast Monday noon. He attended Canyon Public Schools and was graduated in 1937.

Express To Ship Spare Casings to Depot of Gov't

Every citizen who has more than five casings for his car must sell the extra casings back to the government.

It is provided that the owner must take the extra tires to the express office. The tires will be shipped to the government warehouse in Amarillo. The tires will be appraised and the owner paid in cash, War Stamps or Bonds, as may be designated.

No tires have so far been received at the local office for shipment to the warehouse. It is likely that several casings will be shipped within a few days.

Casings which are worn out and not fit for use are not wanted in this manner.

The value of the casings will be appraised by men who know the value of casings.

This regulation applies to all citizens who own more than five casings for each automobile.

Congress Is Expected to Finish Bill For Drafting Youths in Military Service

Boys 18 and 19 years of age will likely be subject to military service by the end of this week.

The House of Representatives passed the bill to include boys of these ages before adjourning Saturday night. The bill would make these boys subject to Selective Service as soon as the bill became the law.

It is predicted that the bill will pass the Senate today or tomorrow.

An amendment is being sponsored in the Senate to make areas around all military camps dry. Prohibition leaders are worried over the liquor problem when the younger boys are inducted into military service. Senate leaders predict that the prohibition amendment will be favored if the question is brought to a vote.

If the bill is passed by Congress and signed by the President during the coming week, local Selective Service Boards will start sending questionnaires to all boys of this age. It is likely that many of them will be inducted into military service during December or January.

Rain During Week Brings Year's Total to 19.42

Rain in Canyon Friday amounted to 1.52 inches. Rain started to fall before noon Friday and continued at intervals throughout the day and part of the night.

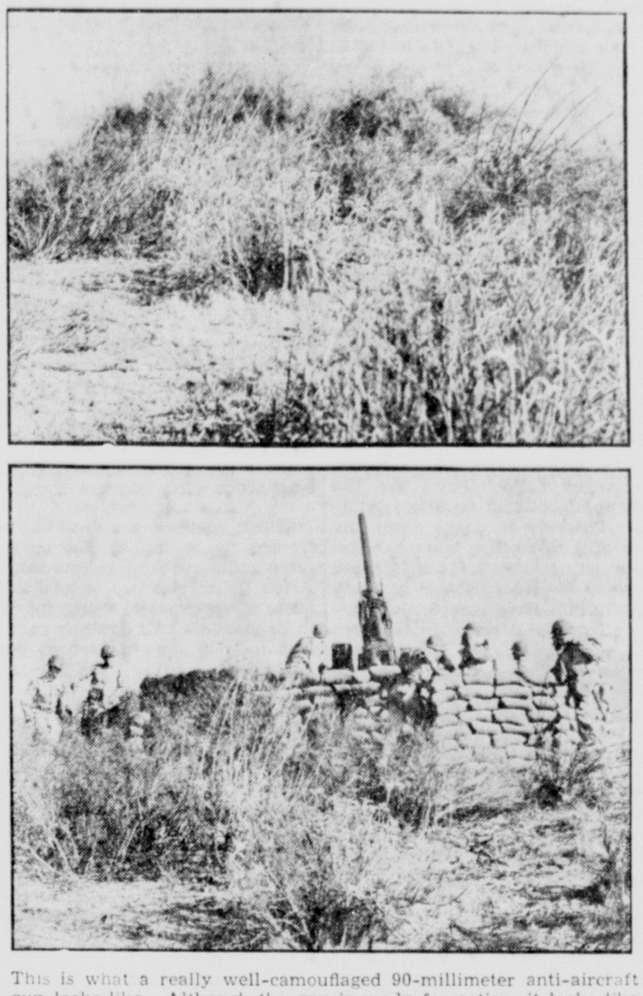
Rain during last week amounted to 2.86 inches. For the month of October the total is now 5.36 inches. This brings the total for 1942 to 19.42 inches.

Practically every drop of the moisture last week has gone into the ground. The wheat crop has been greatly benefitted by the rains of this month. The 1943 wheat crop is generally reported to be in a much more favorable position than the crop was last fall at this time.

It was almost a miracle that a freeze or frost did not accompany the heavy rains. While the temperature dropper considerably, there was no danger of a freeze at any time during the week. The temperature started to rise rapidly Tuesday, and the afternoon was almost like summer.

The Panhandle has seldom enjoyed such a delightful fall weather. It has been just cool enough to be snappy and refreshing, but not too cold for comfort.

Two Portraits of a Gun



This is what a really well-camouflaged 90-millimeter anti-aircraft gun looks like. Although the gun is ready for action, it looks like a brush-covered hillock (top photo). Camouflage can be stripped away in an instant, and the crew races behind protective sandbags to begin firing at enemy planes.

Committee Will Register Trucks

Instruction Periods Will Be Held for Truckers; All Must Get Blanks For Reports

The Farm Transportation Committee for Randall County met Tuesday evening for a conference on the work of signing up applications for War Necessity certificates on all fams trucks.

The committee is undertaking the job of securing a certificate for every farm truck and pickup that is needed in the production and handling of all farm products in Randall county. This will be a tremendous job and it must be done in a hurry, since the time is very short in which to file applications for certificates. The committee is being assisted by volunteer workers from various business firms in Canyon. All of the workers as well as all members of the committee serve without pay.

Blank forms that are needed by each vehicle owner are being mailed from the County Agent's office to the names on the general farm mailing list. Those who do not receive these forms and those who need forms for more than one truck may secure them by calling at the office. The official O. D. T. Application forms are being mailed from a central office in Detroit. Truck owners who do not receive these forms from Detroit or who do not receive a sufficient number of applications are requested to fill out the work sheets and file in the county office. A list of persons who need certificates will then be made up by the committee and forwarded to the central office in Detroit.

A discussion meeting for farmers is being held in the District Court room at 10 a. m. and at 2 p. m. today and Friday and Saturday. Farmers who want to ask questions regarding the program before completing applications are invited to attend one of the meetings.

The committee requests the cooperation of every one in conserving the time of the volunteer workers by having work sheets and tire data as complete as possible before starting on the applications for certificates. Workers will be on hand from 9 a. m. to noon and from 1 to 5 p. m. Friday and Saturday.

The Randall County Farm Transportation Committee is composed of R. B. Gist, chairman, Roy N. Byrd, C. P. Robertson, W. E. Bennett, W. T. Oliver, Clarence Thompson, Jeff Wallace, Lavert Avent and N. B. Beasley.

A wire was received by the committee yesterday stating that no certificates would be needed on farm trailers. This wire was to chane instructions previously issued by the County Transportation Committees.

War Tax Will Dig Deep Into America Funds

Every citizen of the United States will be called upon to pay his part of the war. The largest tax bill in the history of the nation passed Congress Tuesday and went to the President for approval.

The Victory Tax was included in this bill. This is a tax of 5% on the pay of each person over $12 per week.

All income taxes were increased under the new bill, which will take in several million citizens who have been exempt from income tax payments in the past.

The new law becomes effective November 1.

Home Nursing Class To Start Very Soon

Families Must Prepare to Care for Sick Due to the Shortage of Doctors, Nurses

Classes in Home Nursing will be started in a short time. Those interested in taking this work are requested to telephone Mrs. C. A. Murray, No. 121W.

Mrs. John Guthrie, Jr., a registered nurse and qualified Red Cross nurse, will teach the classes.

The government asks that at least one member of each family be prepared to care for sick people in their homes or in the community during the war. Doctors and nurses are being called in the armed forces by the thousands. There is now a shortage of both doctors and nurses throughout the nation, and this shortage will increase as more from this profession are called into service.

Classes will be conducted for six weeks, two lessons per week for two hour periods. The classes will be conducted in the afternoon or evening, to suit the convenience of those taking the work, and if there is a sufficient number, classes may be held in both the afternoon and evening.

These courses are sponsored by the Red Cross and all of the work is approved by this organization. This organization is urging every community in the nation to start classes as soon as qualified instructors may be obtained.

Mrs. Murray asks for a prompt reply of all persons who will take the course in order that a preliminary meeting may be called as soon as Mrs. Guthrie is in position to start the work.

Pvt. John Schramm Wins Marksmanship

Pvt. John Schramm, stationed with the Quartermasters Corps at Fort Warren, Cheyenne, Wyoming, recently won recognition with his marksmanship when his company spent a week on rifle range. Pvt. Schramm was awarded a medal for his work during the week's practice. In addition to this honor he was given a pass to an outstanding football game 70 miles distant with all expenses paid.

Upon completion of his 4-week basic training at Fort Warren, John was placed in the motor maintenance division of the Q. M. T. C. with ignition work being his special field.

Local Group to Handle Gasoline

Three Men Are Named for Gasoline Rationing: Register Cars Nov. 9—Start Nov. 22

The Randall County War Price and Rationing Board has appointed a Gasoline Panel of the board to consist of J. P. Hix, chairman, Ross Craig and J. W. Shook. These men will have charge of gasoline rationing when it becomes effective.

W. J. Wooten states that no instructions have been received by the local board regarding the registration of cars and issuance of gasoline ration books.

According to press dispatches from Washington, registration day will be Nov. 9. On that day every car in the nation will be registered and the owners will be issued ration books.

Starting Nov. 22 no car owner may buy gasoline without a ration book, according to dispatches.

Under the regulations, only five casings will be allowed for each car. Any surplus casings must be delivered to the express office for sale back to the government.

All casings must be registered, and car owners must report to service stations at regular intervals to have the casings checked, and rotated according to regulation.

The owner of any car who drives more than 35 miles per hour will have his license revoked and the ration book reduced.

Mrs. Bud Myers Has Visited Her Husband

Mrs. Bud Myers returned last week from Boston, Mass., where she spent a month with her husband, Sgt. Bud Myers, stationed at Camp Edwards.

Mrs. Myers was in a black-out and witnessed an air raid alarm.

In Massachusetts, they are limited on coffee, milk and meat. Oil and fuel will be rationed soon. It was very odd to see that they used coal and oil stoves.

The trees there were pine and oak. Most of the towns on the coast are summer resorts and have no heating facilities at all.

When you go into a cafe you'd find a bowl of sugar on the table, but you'd have to ask for a glass of water.

Mrs. Lige Frieze spent the week end with her sister at Littlefield.

Tape Windows

Danger from flying glass in case of an air raid is prevented by taping windows to prevent shattering. Air raid wardens instruct housewives in taking this precaution.

Homecoming To Be Held at WT Nov. 7

Program Will Not Be So Elaborate as Former Years But Plenty Doing All Day

Not the most elaborate but one of the most interesting Homecomings held at West Texas State College will be that of November 7. Many ex-students now in the U. S. armed forces are arranging their furloughs so they can be present.

Touched off by a giant bonfire and pep rally, this Homecoming will include class and club reunions, visiting, a pageant, a Sadie Hawkins dance, a giant informal party at Cousins Hall, and the best football game on the local schedule.

The Amarillo Center, too, will have a part in this Homecoming by keeping open house on Friday evening, Nov. 6, and Saturday morning, Nov. 7.

The football game will be the first of the larger spectacles. It will bring the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys, who at present appear to be the strongest outfit in West Texas. The improving and ambitious Buffaloes will crash into these old rivals in a game of wide territorial appeal.

A patriotic pageant written by Mrs. J. A. Hill and recently staged for a state club convention will be seen here for the first time. The committee which will direct this production includes Dr. Seth Fessenden, Mrs. Frances Bright, Miss Ruth Stapleton, and Mrs. Hill.

Dr. J. A. Hill and Boone McClure will be in charge of an informal Homecoming party to be held at Cousins Hall. Special guests of this occasion, in addition to out-of-town exes and visitors, will be those Canyon residents who were here when the college opened in 1910.

The tentative Homecoming program follows:

Friday, Nov. 6—Student pep rally and bonfire, 8:30 p. m. Open house at Amarillo Center, 2101 Harrison.

Saturday, Nov. 7—Open house at Amarillo Center, 2102 Harrison, 10 a. m. to 12 noon.

11-12 o'clock—Faculty members will be in their offices at Canyon to receive guests.

12:30 p. m.—Luncheon for executive committee of Ex-Students' Association, given by President J. A. Hill.

All morning—reunion of student organizations, including breakfasts, coffees, receptions, etc.

2:30 p. m.—Border Conference football game between the Buffaloes and the Cowboys of Hardin-Simmons University.

8 p. m.—Sadie Hawkins-Western dance at Burton Gymnasium, with free admission.

9 p. m.—Homecoming informal party at Cousins Hall, with oldtime dancing, games, visiting, refreshments, and free motion pictures. Canyon residents who were here when the college opened in 1910 will be special guests.

Pete Moffatt of Grovech spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Burrow. He is a representative of the Red Cedar Bureau of Seattle, Washington.

Pete Rozelle returned Wednesday from San Francisco where he visited his brother who recently was returned from Pearl Harbor.

VOTE NOVEMBER 3

Let's go to the polls on November 3 and finish up the job which we started in July.

Not since the days when Herbert Hoover led Al Smith in Texas has there ever been the slightest chance for the state to go Republican. No one suspects that the Republicans will cast much of a vote in this election, and certainly the People's Unity Party—whatever that is—could hardly be expected to make much fuss among the voters. But Texas Democrats made their choice of officials in the July and August primary, and now these must be formally elected in November in order to make the choice binding.

Take a little time out and go to the Polls November 3. It is your patriotic duty to vote in all elections. Furthermore, it is your duty to cast an intelligent ballot.

The really important part of the November election is the five constitutional amendments printed across the bottom of the ballot. If you have ever said that you, a common citizen of this great state, never have a chance to make a law, then this is your chance. The legislature has checked to the voters five different proposals which will become a part of the Texas law if and when these amendments are adopted by a vote of the people. This is your opportunity to have a say about the fundamental laws of Texas.

The News has spent considerable time in studying the provisions of these amendments, and gives its readers the benefits of this investigation.

The first amendment on the ballot provides that the legislature shall not appropriate money until the Comptroller certifies that there will be money available in the treasury to pay the appropriations. The general fund of the state is about 30 million dollars in the red, and it is provided that bonds shall be voted to pay off these outstanding warrants. This amendment was sponsored by regional Chambers of Commerce and advocated by many prominent citizens. The amendment sounds very good, but there are still defects. In the first place, most of the outstanding warrants have been discounted by the original holders, and therefore these persons and firms will not benefit as a result of issuing these bonds. The original holders have lost by this discount, and now the State would be out interest to buy up the warrants from the purchasers.

The chief objection we have to the amendment is the powers which will be vested in the Comptroller. He will be the financial czar of the state, which might be a bad thing under certain circumstances. Under our present system of hit-and-miss financing, the state has been going deeper in debt, and something should be done. But is this the solution? We doubt it.

The second amendment seeks to pay for a building erected at John Tarlton Agricultural College. Several years ago a governor issued a deficiency warrant for a building at this college. The contractor erected the building, but it was found that the governor did not have the power to issue such a deficiency. The state owes somebody for this building. Whether right or wrong in the policy of erecting the building, the state should pay its debts. Failure to pay for the building would mean repudiation—which is an ugly word.

The third amendment provides that more courts may be created in counties with populations over 200,000. It is presumed that the four counties in Texas which are affected by the amendment would pay for the additional courts, but the amendment does not make this clear. The average citizen believes that there are now too many courts in Texas. Down in Dallas last week juries were not used in the Seven District Courts for the lack of business. Yet this amendment provides for the establishment of more courts in Dallas county.

The fourth amendment provides for paying army and navy officers who are assigned for duty to educational institutions. This amendment should be approved. Every college in the state needs military training. The nation will see a growing demand for military training and this may be secured only as military men are assigned to the colleges. The cost is not going to be great as compared with the future benefits.

The fifth amendment provides for borrowing $2,000,000 from the Permanent School Fund for the purpose of building an office building. There is no doubt about the need of a new office building. The State is now paying out $126,000 annually for rents in Austin. State departments have completely overrun all available space in the present state buildings. No one believes that it is possible to reduce state departments, as much as this might be advisable. The state will not be out any more money by paying interest on these bonds than it is now paying rents, and at the same time all departments would be more centrally located. Those who have not been in Austin in recent years need a chart in order to get around to find the different departments which are hidden around town in remote corners. Naturally this would be no time to start a two million dollar building, but if the authority is given now the state can do its building at the proper time—any time within five years, according to the amendment.

As we said above—vote on Nov. 3, and be sure to express your opinion on these amendments.

Just now the amateur military strategist is coming in for a lot of lambasting. Even the President took a whack at newspaper and magazine writers who attempt to give military advice. Being a radio star in his own right, the President overlooked the daily babble from commentators who are given their advice about the conduct of the war. Why shouldn't civilians criticise when they know that the government is going haywire? You will recall the military brass hats crucified Colonel Billy Mitchell for advocating that an ample air force be built. You will recall that the navy brass hats insisted on spending most of their money for big battleships, which Admiral Leahey now admits was a mistake. You will recall that Arthur Brisbane, Will Rogers and many other bold civilians were ignored by the army and navy when these forward-looking civilians advocated ample air force. After all, civilians sometimes are able to see advantages of munitions which military men cannot see. Just now Henry J. Kaiser is building ships faster than any naval man thought possible, and Kaiser never built a ship until a few months ago.

We were quite amused to hear that a certain group of citizens are claiming that these persons are doing more to win the war than any other group. Such statements are silly and should be frowned upon. Who is winning the war? Well, let's be sure that America and the United Nations are really winning before we start bragging. But when we do win the war it will be the united efforts of every citizen of the 28 allied nations working with every other citizen of all these nations that will eventually win. One thing is sure and certain, we shall not win until there is perfect team work on the part of all American citizens, and the lack of team work is demonstrated when groups brag about what they are doing.

Thank goodness the Japs did not succeed in buying up all of the scrap metal available in this nation. A few short years ago we saw train loads of scrap metal being shipped to Japan. All of us rather smiled, and took it as a matter of good business in trading with the Japs. Today we wish we had this scrap metal for our furnaces.

Morale wardens are greatly needed in the United States. Too many citizens are too prompt in swallowing baseless rumors, and repeating them without regard to the safety of the nation. Nazi agents have planted ugly lies which are quickly repeated by so-called patriotic citizens, who ought to know better than even believe such trash. Public officials are the favored targets for such propaganda. You know in this nation, we like to boast about our right to select public officials, but as soon as we elect them we make targets of them.

Where are all of the men from Randall county who are in the service? The News is often asked why we do not print a list of all the 425 men who are in the military service. In the first place, there is no such a list available; in the second place, printing information about the movement of troops is censored material; in the third place, keeping up with the men as they are shuttled from camp to camp is an almost impossible job. Getting pictures of all men in service has proven to be another job of herculian proportion.

Those who thought they were doing a smart thing in buying up a stock of reserve tires now find that these must be sold to Uncle Sam. Hoarding never pays, unless it is hoarding a lot of War Bonds.

College Farm Is to Produce More

More Crops, Gardens to Be Raised—Whippo Is Studying Soil Content

Increased production to meet wartime needs of West Texas State College dormitories is a project of Prof. Spencer Whippo at the College Farm.

Mr. Whippo, an authority on soils and grasses, is studying samples of earth taken from various parts of the farm, which is the headquarters of the old T-Anchor ranch. These findings will determine the types of crops and garden vegetables to be planted for the next growing season.

Dairy cows kept at the farm supply dormitories with milk, cream, and butter. Prior to this time, the farm has been used for experiments, with production as an incidental factor. But fresh vegetables will be supplied next summer from gardens on the farm. Increased facilities for irrigation will make these plots possible. There is a small lake on the tract.

Some experiments will be started on grasses for plains pasturage. Before coming to the department of agriculture here, Mr. Whippo did advanced research and teaching at Texas A. & M. College.

We love peace as we abhor pusillanimity; but not peace at any price. There is a peace more destructive to the manhood of living man than war is destructive of his material body. Chains are worse than bayonets.—Douglas Jerrold.

Wes Izzard Talked About Washington At Rotary Lunch

L. F. Sheffy was in charge of the program at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday, introducing the guest speaker, Wes Izzard of the Amarillo News-Globe.

Mr. Izzard talked about his recent trip to Washington, D. C., where he interviewed many distinguished people on war problems.

"There is nothing startling in Washington," stated the speaker. "The country visitor feels like a kid at the circus. The fellows who don't know the inside dope will talk by the hours, but those who do know will tell the visitor nothing."

Washington is unanimous that the men at the head of the armed forces are highly capable. General Marshall is held in the highest regard by all citizens. There may be politics in the army and navy, but Mr. Izzard feels that the country has safe leaders.

He was in Washington when the Truman committee made its report on planes, claiming that American planes were not so effective or good as those of our enemies. Congressional committees are losing prestige because most of those heading the committes are not qualified for investigations. The Office of War Information made a complete report on American planes this week, denying the Truman report.

Mr. Izzard says that one hears much about the lack of cooperation between the army and navy. From what he was able to find out he believes that foolish rules of the past are now being eliminated and that there is now better co-operation.

The Axis have been broadcasting daily about the landing of American troops in Africa. While our government has made no reply, Mr. Izzard is convinced that Africa may be the place for the second front against the Axis.

The President left Washington during Mr. Izzard's visit there. The President was criticized by many newspaper men for leaving the capital at that time, and the censorship which was imposed on his trip.

The President makes no effort to get along with the press, which is something that the newspaper people are unable to understand. The President's greeting to the newspaper men on Labor Day was "Hello, suckers," which did not set well with the writers.

There is more talk about Paul McNutt than about any other possible candidate in 1944. Mr. Izzard states that McNutt is a big man in the nation, and may be groomed by the President.

Regarding the trip of Willkie, there is a great variety of opinions in Washington. The concensus was that Willkie did not get along with the British leaders; was warmly received in both Russia and China, and on the whole did a good job for America.

"Washington realizes that we are facing the most drastic change in world conditions following the war," stated the speaker.

Visitors were: W. W. Rusk and John McCarty, Amarillo; T. A. Black, Dan Sanders and Joe Duflot of Canyon.

All States But Two Send Tourists To Museum Here

If just two more states send representatives to the Panhandle-Plains Museum, Assistant Curator Boone McClure can be happy.

McClure, who manages the museum, is eager to boast that tourists from every state have visited the museum this year. But there are two delinquent states—Rhode Island and Maine. As a compromise, McClure would recognize any soldiers from these states who may be in training in this territory.

Museum registrants so far this year number more than 21,000, compared to a yearly average of 30,000. Of these, Texas has furnished more than 19,000. Twenty-eight visitors came from foreign countries.

Carolyn Greenway Gets Commission

With the commissioning last week of eleven more Texas women as officers of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps at the training center in Fort Des Moines, Iowa, the Lone Star State took rank among the two or three states in the union supplying the most officers for that branch of the armed services.

Among the eleven commissioned recently was Third Officer Carolyn Greenway. Miss Greenway, whose home was at Hamlin, is a graduate of West Texas State College and was a physical education teacher at Las Cruces, New Mexico. She ranked No. 1 in her candidate class at For Des Moines.

The eleven new Texas third officers, their basic six-week officers' training behind them, now will bake two weeks of specialist training courses, then will be assigned to active duty to replace male officers at desk jobs or similar non-combat duties.

Homecoming Will Be Held Despite Rubber Shortage

Homecoming plans were taking form last evening as a committee of ex-students met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill.

While Homecoming features will be fewer this year, it is believed an interesting program can be arranged. Many service men are known to be planning to ask furloughs for the Homecoming period.

She: "Why don't those troops show more ginger?"

He: "Well, you see, they were just recently mustered."

Freshman Cagers Crowd Varsity

Finest Frosh Outfit Is Ready—Miller Beams as Youngsters Do Well

With the beginning of a schedule as ambitious as any team ever tackled just around the corner, Coach Gus Miller pitted his "World's Tallest Basketball Team" against their Freshmen understudies in a scrimmage last Tuesday night, in which the varsity came out on the long end of a 77-46 score.

No individual scoring record was kept, but Ledru Jacobs, 6 foot forward, slipped in at least 18 points, followed by the Johnson Brothers, Clark and Charles, 6 foot 4 inch forward and 6 foot 1 inch guard, who garnered approximately 7 field goals each. Ray Ellefson, tallest of the tall at 6 feet 9 inches, crowded in 12 points with his scoring, and the other 19 points were taken care of by Captain Bill Stockman, Norman Trimble and James Crews. Guard Douglas Groom was on the injured list and watched from the sidelines.

Every freshman did his share of scoring, but Metz LaFollet and Frank Cunningham led the group with about 18 and 12 points. Jack Maddox, star of last year, was referee.

Expressing his joy over their fine early season showing, Coach Miller said, "They need to polish the defense, work the reserves into the first team and improve their shots, but the boys are fast, work together, are aggressive and above all love to play basketball. It is the finest bunch of freshmen players that I have ever seen."

The Buffs will be as tall or taller than last year, yet this will be only an advantage, for speed and finesse will mark their play. They have had no coaching yet this season.

From a smoke session of a southern Army post came this definition of a "peep"—or was it a "jeep"—to end all defining. "It's a number 14 roller skate," quipped the wise lad, "equipped with motor, mud guards, windshield, and place to seat two heels instead of one."

Mrs. Barnes on Visit H. D. Clubs

Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, extension specialist in clothing, was the guest speaker at the meeting of all home demonstration clubs last week.

Mrs. Barnes stated that the people of the United States should have two objectives: to streamline our way of living to meet the present situation, and to do our part towards helping prevent inflation.

Cloth is a weapon of war, stated the specialist. It is used in all types of war work. Two hundred and fifty pounds of cotton is required to outfit one man in the war. The army needs long staple cotton for this. Another cloth that is valuable is wool of which the army uses three-fourths of the supply. Rayon is used to make tires and parachutes. Nylon and silk are vital to the war effort.

Cleaning fluids have been cut fifty per cent which means that the American people must learn to make each garment last six months longer with fewer cleanings.

The specialist stated that new materials were appearing on the market that we shall have to learn to use, clean and launder. Among these is Arloc, a new product which is made from milk.

She also pointed out that records show that out of the 32,000,000 families in the United States, 1,900,000 own sewing machines. Of these fifty per cent do not work. Care should be taken of the machines because of the shortage of materials.

The Canyon Elementary School Parent-Teachers' Association had its first meeting Monday, Oct. 19, in the music room of the Grade Building. The room was beautifully decorated with dahlias from the College Dahlia Garden by the committee of teachers with Mrs. L. M. Cousins as chairman.

This is a new organization. The former Canyon Public School association divided last spring into Elementary and High School groups.

Cook; secretary, Mrs. Ross Craig; treasurer, Mrs. Ralph Harter; membership chairman, Mrs. Burney Slack; finance chairman, Mrs. Worth Jennings; publicity chairman, Mrs. Stella Murrell; hospitality chairman, Mrs. Percy Walters.

A lovely program was presented with Mrs. Glen Bowen, president of the Amarillo Parent-Teacher Council, as the speaker. Her theme was "The Parent-Teacher Association in Wartime."

Anita Davis delighted the audience with a piano solo, "Shortn'in' Bread." Another very impressive feature of the program was the reading of "Our J. T. A. Wartime Pledge" by Mrs. R. A. Neblett.

At the conclusion of the program, the Canyon Elementary Faculty, with Mrs. Stella Murrell as chairman of the social committee, welcomed the new organization with a social hour. Mrs. Ralph Harter played several piano numbers while refreshments of Victory punch, cookies, mints and nuts were served.

The Book Club will have their next meeting on October 28 at 3:30 o'clock. The subject for discussion will be "A Second Front Now at All Costs," Mrs. Burrow; "Jeffers Job," Mrs. Ingham; and "For Total War Must all Workers be Drafted," Mrs. McElroy.

The professor looked at his watch. "Never mind, young man," he said. "your patient has been dead for 40 seconds."

BOOK CLUB STUDIES PHASES OF ALLIED WAR EFFORT

Under the leadership of Miss Darthula Walker as program chairman the Woman's Book Club met Wednesday, Oct. 14 to study phases of the allied war effort.

Miss Walker opened the discussion by speaking on the "Bombing of Germany." With the help of a large map she pointed out the thirty-one key industrial cities of Germany which are to be bombed methodically in an effort to cripple her production of planes and arms, and thus render her vulnerable to invasion. The importance of our own industrial output in such a program was emphasized.

Miss Hellen Hickman then spoke on "What the Schools are Doing Toward Our War Effort." She cited the courses in civil aeronautics which are now being taught in many high schools, saying that in many cases are being taught by women.

Other adaptations mentioned were longer sessions with fewer holidays; greater teaching load of the individual teacher; and curriculum changes which are now placing great emphasis on scientific and technical subjects, home-nursing, first aid, and nutrition.

The short business session which followed the program hour was directed by Miss Irene Angel, club president. Mrs. Seth Fessenden and Mrs. Spencer Whippo were voted in as new members.

Those present were: Miss Irene Angel, Mrs. C. C. Armstrong, Mrs. H. E. Campfield, Mrs. S. H. Condron, Miss Hellen Hickman, Mrs. J. A. Hill, Mrs. I. C. Jenkins, Mrs. A. K. Emler Catches Blocked Punt To Score Lone Touchdown

Punting Duel Is Seen As Teams Battle in Mud

C. M. Teague blocked and Buford Emler caught a Texas Miners' punt after the first six minutes of play Saturday night on Buffalo Field to give the West Texas Buffaloes a 7 to 0 Border Conference victory on a wet field.

The weather was not favorable for football. Neither team had much success with a passing attack although the Miners tried the air excessively. Victor Clark outplayed the publicised Raymond "Sugar" Evans as he accounted for most of his team's gains by running and passing.

LeRoy Reeves did most of the carrying for the Buffaloes, netting a total of 66 yards from scrimmage. He tried two passes; neither was complete.

The small crowd, braving the weather, saw mostly a punting duel with many incomplete passes and unsuccessful ground action. Freak of the game was the fact that the Miners did not kick off during the game. Ordinarily each team kicks off at least once during the game.

Co-Captains Johnny Thomas and Joed Forbus played an excellent game in tearing up the Mucker's offensive strategy. Thomas added the extra point to the Buffaloes touchdown by placement.

Each summer Texas State College for Women conducts a school for students of Spanish, at Saltillo, Mexico, directed by the department of foreign languages of the college, in which conversational Spanish and lectures on Mexican civilization and literature are given by Mexican instructors. Begun in 1941, it has been called an unusual experiment in inter-American education.

Wife: "Why?"

Hubby: "The baby has fallen asleep."

Texas has the largest production of soft drinks of any state in the nation.

An investigation made by the Bureau of Economic Geology at the University of Texas several years ago, revealed several hundred kinds of commercially valuable stones in the area west of Austin in the counties of Travis, Burnet, Llano, Mason, Lampasas, Gillespie and San Saba.

"You have to take what you can get these days," said the philosophic citizen.

"Yes," replied the weary one, "but some of the phone numbers I get are no good to me at all."

One of Texas' most noteworthy industrial developments during the last 15 years has been the expansion of the large-scale butter, cheese, ice cream and condensed milk industries.

Prospective Tenant (nervously): "Don't you think this window is rather small, in case of emergency?"

Landlady: "There won't be any emergency. My terms are cash in advance."

Spindles and looms were introduced in the early Spanish missions at San Antonio and the first cotton grown in Texas was turned into cloth by the Indians who were trained at the missions.

Although Texas is the leading mineral producing state in the nation, it has comparatively few mines, 90 per cent of its mineral being produced from wells.

Texas has an abundance of mineral springs and wells, and the manufacture of mineral crystals has become an industry in several places.

The greatest manufacturing industry in Texas today is petroleum refining, which contributes more than 40% of the total value of Texas manufacture.

About the most discouraged person we've seen was the one who had written a long overdue letter, and then lost it before getting it mailed.

Having a good aim in life is all right, but you must know when to pull the trigger to get the best results.

In 1940, Texas had more sheep than any other kind of livestock with 8,447,809 recorded by the Bureau of the Census.

Long Trip to Flagstaff Next

Buffaloes Face Strong Air Offensive in Big Arizona Mountain Team

After cleaning their suits, soiled in the mud of the last battle with Texas Mines, Coach Gus Miller's Buffaloes will take their longest trek of the season when they head for Arizona to play the Flagstaff Teachers Saturday afternoon.

Arizona boasts little in the way of a running attack, but is offensively powerful in the air. A wee mite of a lad, Candilaria, 140-pound left half, is responsible for the team's passing and punting, which he does too well to suit the opposition. Usually on the receiving end of Candilaria's heaves is Bill Chesley, 178-pound left end, who is exceptionally fast and catches everything but a cold.

The weight of the Teachers' running game is on the shoulders of 165-pound Clyde Oversen, who works from his fullback position off short punt, single wingback, and spread formations. Although Flagstaff lost, 25-6, to the University of New Mexico and 6-2 to a California team, they will be playing on their home ground, always an advantage.

Under the tutoring of Assistant Coach Nicklaus, the Buffalo line has shown marked improvement, with freshman and reserves developing rapidly. Co-captain Joed Forbus' return to the line has done much to strengthen the forward wall. LeRoy Reeves, freshman back, should be able to match the passing of Arizona and he always has a willing receiver in Andy Anderson, Leslie Curb, or Buford Emler. A running attack will be one of the Buffs' strong points, with McMahan and Castleberry carrying the ball behind the blocking of Mack Winter.

The two lines will weigh about the same but W. T. will have the edge in the backfield.

The probable starting line-ups:

West Texas	Arizona State
LE—Curb	Chesley
LT—Thomas	Nicholls
LG—Rampley	Johnson
C—White	De Spain
RG—Forbus	Bingham
RT—Love	Randall
RE—Emler	Bowling
QB—Anderson	Phillips
LH—Winter	Candilaria
RH—Castleberry	Loving
FB—McMahan	Oversen

Florist: "No, but we have some very nice chrysanthemums."

He: "No, I must have geraniums. They're for my wife."

Florist: "I'm sure she'd like these chrysanthemums just as well."

He: "You don't understand. They are to replace some geraniums I said I would look after while she was away."

Ghosts Shall Reign at Carnival

PTA Completes Festivity Plans

Grade Students Forfeit Programs for Booths

Rah! Rah! Ye Olde Ghost will reign as the gates of the Parent-Teachers Association Hallowe'en carnival open on Friday, October 30. Barkers will howl; queens will smile. Customers will laugh, eat, roar and throw their worries to the wind.

In other words, Canyon Public School students will celebrate this Hallowe'en as usual! After adjusting the program for the evening's entertainment, the P. T. A consented to do their bit toward keeping Canyon morale and P. T. A. finances high by sponsoring a carnival this Hallowe'en.

For the first time in years the grade school will dispense with its program and will sponsor booths instead. High school organizations will install bazaars as usual.

Funds gleaned from this carnival will be distributed equally between the two branches of the P. T. A. of Canyon schools, which are jointly sponsoring the activity.

Superintendent J. B. Speer reports that prizes will be offered as usual to the organizations which realize the most money for the P. T. A.

As usual, the Press Club will sponsor the crowning of the Carnival Queen. One candidate will be nominated by each class, and the queen will be elected by the persons attending the carnival.

Slide in a Horseshoe; Win a Championship

"IF—I can just slide this one in, we might win," exclaimed one boy to his companion-partner one day at noon.

With almost a dozen courts located north and west of the school building to play on, the boys have to compete for championship. It seems Merle Dickerson, Max Bosley, Raymond Graves and Jim Westfall claim the highest honors.

For the boys not interested in washers, horseshoes furnish opportunities for "sliding in" ringers.

Since Canyon High would not be alive if a football were not in action, pass ball is plunged into by a group of enthusiastic boys.

"As long as pretty weather holds out, we will continue these activities. On disagreeable days, pingpong contests will be held in the gym," affirmed Milton Sanders, coach.

He Needs Scrap!

Have you thought of these inobscure sources of scrap?

Any old flat iron that is contributed will make two steel helmets or 30 hand grenades, five 37-millimeter anti-aircraft shells can be made from an old electric iron. An old wash pail will make three bayonets, and 84 rounds of ammunition for an automatic rifle may be made from an old copper kettle.

Some old discarded tractor will produce 580 machine guns, while an old lawn mower will make six three-inch shells.

If one old tire is contributed, it will make 20 pairs of parachute troopers' boots or 12 gas masks, and one 30-caliber machine gun may be made out of one old set of golf clubs. Just two pounds of waste kitchen fat will fire five anti-tank shells.

Donnell Instructs Military Squad

Corporal Winn Leads Boys Learning Army Tactics

About—face! Right—face! Forward—march!

These are common cries heard on Tuesday and Thursday nights between 7:30 and 9 o'clock by 60 participants of a military training course among whom are ten Canyon High School students.

Military drill, calesthenics and physical training are included in the hour and a half of scheduled procedure.

Under the supervision of Lieutenant Reeves Donnell, the boys line up and answer to roll call, after which they undergo the regular army routine of training.

"This training, however, is not authorized and has no connection with the United States Army; and outside of teaching them things they will receive in the Army, it has no significance," continued Mr. Donnell.

The boys are divided into squads consisting of 12 or less men. Four squads make up a platoon.

J. Spencer Winn is corporal of the high school squad of Calvin Sanders, Wayne Wirt, Eugene Bonds, Blake Zachry, Wayne Trout, Kenneth Bosley, Talmage Bosley, Clifford Abbott and Lewell Johnston; while boys from the College Farm and Civil Pilot Training Cadets make up other squads.

THE EAGLE'S EYE

Patriotic students of Canyon High showed their real American spirit last Monday as they again scored a large sale of Bonds and Stamps.

Students buying War Bonds this week were Billy Ray Boling, Max Dutton, Harold Prichard, Billy Ray Crow, while Sandy Oliver completed his Bond.

Stamp sales for the day totaled $43.

They say the Russians are keeping Hitler as busy as a lady centipede crossing her knees.

Dr. J. C. Sinclair, of the University of Texas Medical School, suggests that getting rid of ragweed is a home-front job worthy of anybody's attention. At least 8 per cent of Texas' 300,000 hay fever victims are allergic to the weed, he points out, and planting a Victory Garden in its place would eliminate it permanently.

As so-called home front duties confront us today, we accept greater responsibilities to do our part. One of the most pertinent problems facing us is the question of educating our 204,450 non-citizens residing in Texas. To teach citizenship, the federal government has suggested the organization of volunteer clubs in all counties having over 15 or 16 aliens.

Randall county residents can properly say that no program of this type must be sponsored here since according to the alien list, no non-citizen individuals live here.

The present generation is living in one of the most crucial and perplexing eras yet recorded in history's ever-unfinished journal. Today, only one thing is certain: That as long as the 48 symbolic stars and 13 meaningful stripes top a masthead, there is a social mansion for every liberty-minded person, no matter what his earthly wealth; but that as long as the cursed Nazi emblem exists, there is a distinct threat to civilization and freedom, AND that Star-Spangled Banner.

The Moral: Buy more Stamps and Bonds every day.

Maybe there's something to this rumor about the Yankees who shelled the enemy because they were thick as peas.

"How did your Victory Garden turn out this year?"

"It was a great saving in one way. There wasn't as much lawn to mow."

Roberts Directs First Program

Speer and Walker Make Announcements in Chapel

Beginning the year's second assembly program Friday morning, Miss Mary Roberts and the band presented a musical program which was followed by announcements from Superintendent J. B. Speer and Mrs. Du Bois Walker concerning this year's organization of the Student-Faculty Congress and the Parent-Teachers Association.

Selections played by the band were: "Any Bonds Today" by Irving Berlin, "E Pluribus Unum" by Fred Jewell, "King Cotton" by John Philip Sousa, and "God Bless America" by Irving Berlin. Sue Ann Moreman completed the musical program by playing a piano solo, "Etude Melodic" by James Rogers.

Mrs. Walker, representing the P. T. A., asked that students encourage their parents to join the association. "Dues are 35 cents for each person, and a prize will be given to the classes turning in the highest percentage of membership," she announced.

Mr. Speer announced that Miss Roberts will have charge of assembly programs throughout the year, and urged that all organizations interested in presenting programs see the new director as soon as possible.

As a conclusion to the assembly, Polly Winstead made a report on the sale of War Stamps and Bonds last Thursday, and announced that they would be sold again on Monday, October 19.

Meet Sergeant Porky A Pig for a Mascot

It ran about squealing and chasing chickens in its back-yard playground. When it would see someone coming it would run to the gate, for it knew very well the person had come to empty the garbage pail. The hungry little creature grunted about in the garbage until all had disappeared.

That was Sergeant "Porky," mascot of the former National Guard of Canyon.

"Porky" is a full-blooded razorback pig. He is dark black with a mane of bristles running from his head to his corkscrew tail and is as playful and tame as a pet dog.

While on maneuvers in Louisiana, the National Guard found this little wild razorback which had strayed from its mother. The guards became so attached to "Porky" they even went so far as to let him sleep with them. "Porky" would simply crawl on a soldier's bed, curl up and go to sleep.

"Porky" is now in Canyon and is about ten times as large as he was when he was with the National Guard in Louisiana. It's a miracle "Porky" has grown at all because of so much whiskey fed him. He is scarcely recognized by members of the National Guard today.

One must confess it: man is more sensible than reasonable.—Frederick the Great.

Man must make the angels laugh. Charles Lamb.

"I'll take a sucker, do you want one too?" she will say, and not the least bit bashfully.

For you poor girls who are now nearing the age of 17 and have not been proposed to yet, here is your golden opportunity. You do the chasing and asking.

Canyon High School is now proclaiming SADIE HAWKINS WEEK from November 1 to 8. Since everyone knows the tradition started by the hill-billies, follow likewise.

A few girls have always had the greatest desire to show some boys how a model date should act, so, if her desire is still pressing, here is a good chance.

Now as to rules one should follow here are a few hints:

1. Boys should give the girls a chance to ask for dates that week.
2. Girls should lay off their steady and meet some of the other boys.
3. Show the boys a good date.
4. These arrangements of couples are only temporary.
5. Get to bed by midnight, or fraction thereof.
6. Beware of women drivers; save rubber anyway.
7. Only students of Canyon High are eligible.

These rules will help get you started, but remember girls—make the rounds—meet everyone and show the boys the Perfect Time!

Roberts Chooses Choral Members

Adding another vocal enterprise to Canyon High School's growing music department, Miss Mary Roberts, head of the department, held tryouts for boys' and girls' double trios Thursday and Friday of last week.

Because of the large number of girls who tried, two different sections of girls will perform.

The following girls were selected for the different parts in the first group: First sopranos, Ellen Root and Betty Ann Miller; second sopranos, Betty Brown and Velta Speer; and altos, Martha Jean Dowd and Mary Alice Campfield. Anita Davis will provide the piano accompaniment for these girls, as well as for the boys.

In the second girls' group, those chosen were: First sopranos, Wanda Moreland, Ellen Sanders and Frances Gooch; second sopranos, Mary Ann Bellah and Sue Ann Moreman; and altos, Frances Alice Harp and Billie Jo Wallen. Ellen Sanders and Sue Ann Moreman will alternate in accompanying this division.

First tenors, Charles Taylor and Dana Persons; second tenors, Johnny Harter and J. Spencer Winn, and basses Andy Walsh and Dick Woods are the members of the boys' double trio.

"I found it quite difficult to select the members for these three special chorus groups as Canyon High has so much talent among its students. No definite plan of work has been organized, but we have already begun rehearsals," commented Miss Roberts.

GABBelario is a very contagious disease dreaded especially by study-hall teachers. The sufferers are mostly sophomores, but the malady is spreading rapidly to the juniors and seniors. It is not necessarily fatal to the victim, but is known to cause much irritation among those who are immune.

I'm not sure so don't get on me, but I heard that Polly Winstead and Charles Owens had a wonderful time at the senior picnic (later turned into a skating party), and, that Dick (In the Mood) Woods loves to hold another man's girl friend's hand, especially while skating. However, don't mention this to Speedy Wright.

Two English teachers, Mrs. Guy Tabor and a teacher friend, were in an auto smash-up. Corpses, glass and other incumbrances flew around for a while. The unknown teacher, fatally wounded, faintly gasped:

"It's no use, I'm done for."

"Heavens," shrieked Mrs. Tabor from the other side, "don't end your sentence with a preposition!"

A tan Chevrolet, a Friday night (after the junior party) Eugene Bonds, Wayne Wirt, a tank full of gas and a load of beautiful girls—draw your own conclusions!

GUESS WHO

Fast as a race horse,
Silly as can be:
Pert senior Romeo
Who is he?
Sings in the chorus,
Flirts with the dames,
Rides on a bus,
Now, what's his name?

Answer to last week's "Guess Who" is Polly Winstead. How many guessed it correctly?

Sanders Coaches Sports Training

Three Lettermen Return Assisted by Basketeers

With three lettermen and 16 good prospects as the nucleus of his basketball team for 1942-43, Coach Milton Sanders opened basketball training Monday afternoon.

Unable to report the year's schedule, Mr. Sanders is anticipating an invitational tournament to be held here December 10-12. As usual the Eagles will compete in the Friona tournament.

Under the business managership of Tommy Thompson, different basketeers will serve as captains during the year, and at the conclusion of the season, the basketball captain for the season will be chosen.

Calvin Sanders, James Wright and Wayne Wirt, lettermen from last year, will be supported by Lindsey Taylor, Bobbie Dowd, George Black, J. Ray Hunter, J. Spencer Winn, Don Standley, Charles Taylor, Bill Drummond, Bobby Black, Leslie Gordon, Max Bosley, Bob Copeland and Earl Gene Peppard.

"We have the best prospects for a good basketball team, that we've had in a long time, even though tires may handicap our journeys," assured Coach Sanders.

Victory Schedule Is Announced

Miss Mary Roberts, head of the music department, announced the coming of a Victory program soon, in which all the high school music department will participate. Admission will be the purchasing of one copy of "Marching Along" per family.

All the schools of Texas will have a Victory program this month and every month following.

History to Be Required Study

Students Entering Hereafter Must Take 6 Hours —Americanism Is Basis

Six semester hours—one year—of American history will be required of every graduate of West Texas State College, under a new ruling of the board of regents.

The requirement will affect all students enrolling here in the future. The regents recommended that all students now enrolled attempt to include American history in their courses of study.

Six hours of government is a requirement already existing in state law.

The study of history will be part of a program of campus-wide appreciation of American institutions. History hitherto has not been required of all students, although it is a popular subject.

Contest Under Way

An essay contest on "What the American Way Means to Me" is being promoted jointly by the Canyon Rotary Club and the student newspaper. Prizes totaling $20 in war stamps will be given.

A study of the war efforts of Texas State colleges is being made as a basis for intensifying and coordinating their work. Each institution reported hundreds of such activities at a board of regents meeting recently in Houston.

Winning of the war, in the opinion of state college presidents, is the job of paramount importance now.

Talks in Fort Worth

While attending the regent's quarterly sessions in Houston last week, Dr. Hill attended dinners honoring two retiring state college presidents—Dr. A. W. Birdwell of Nacogdoches and Dr. C. E. Evans of San Marcos. While away he also addresses the Fort Worth Lions club as a guest of a former student, H. O. Childress, who is chairman of the program committee and vice-president of the civic group. Ex-students present included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rattikin, Miss Lena Dunlavey, Miss Ima Kuykendall, and Mrs. Lucy Boyles, a sister of Mr. Rattikin.

All the college presidents were urged to begin making plans for the post-war period.

Dr. Hill was fecilitated on his beginning his 25th year as president of West Texas State. He is currently the president of longest tenure as head of a Texas college.

Schemes rarely take the place of good, hard work in the lives of those who succeed.

Is It True What They Say About VITAMINS?

A — VITAMIN A

For normal vision. Scientists say it's important for a long healthy life. Any extra Vitamin A is stored in your liver. Vitamin A helps to keep your skin soft and your eyes sparkling. Some of the Vitamin A content is lost when butter is cooked; it is entirely destroyed in frying.

FOODS—BEST SOURCES OF VITAMIN A

VEGETABLES	Carrots	Peaches	Egg Yolk
Green Beans	Yellow Corn	Pineapple	Liver
Asparagus	Tomatoes	Prunes	Glandular
Kale		Cherries	Meats
Mustard Greens	FRUITS	FISH	Butter
Turnip Greens	Apricots	Oysters	Cheese
Sweet Potatoes	Oranges	Fish Oils	Cream

C — VITAMIN C

Ascorbic Acid helps keep your teeth and gums healthy and your body agile and young. Helps to strengthen the walls of the tiny blood vessels. Vitamin C is rapidly destroyed by heat and oxidation except in acids.

FOODS RICH IN VITAMIN C

Tomatoes	Green limas	Oranges	Pears
Cabbage	Swiss Chard	Grapefruit	Cantaloupe
Green Peppers	Watercress	Lemons	Berries
Turnip Greens	Rutabaga	Peaches	Apples

B — VITAMIN B

Whets the appetite, steadies nerves and gives vim and vigor. Must be taken every day; the body does not store much of it. Deficiency symptoms—Retards growth, loss of appetite, nervousness, constipation, reduced well-being.

FOODS RICH IN VITAMIN B1 (THIAMINE)

Asparagus	Apples	Pears	Milk
Lima Beans	Dates	Beef	Skim Milk
Broccoli	Figs	Fowl	Evaporated Milk
Cabbage	Grapes	Lamb	Fish
Sweet Corn	Prunes	Ham	Cod
Tomatoes	Plums	Liver	Salmon
Kale	Peaches	Pork, Lean	Sardines
Turnip Greens	Oranges	Veal	Nuts
Wheat Germ	Pineapple	Cheese

K — VITAMIN K

Is very important. You would bleed to death if it weren't for Vitamin K. Occurs in associates with Vitamin C.

FOOD RICH IN VITAMIN K

Soy-bean Oil	Cabbage	Turnip Greens	Spinach
Pork Liver Fat	Egg Yolk	Swiss Chard	Kale
Rice Bran			Lettuce

E — VITAMIN E

Necessary for healthy muscles. Essential for normal production and normal functioning of the pituitary and thyroid glands.

FOODS RICH IN VITAMIN E

Wheat Germs	Green Leafy
Legumes	Vegetables
Olive Oil	Meats

NOTE: Cooking results in no appreciable loss in Vitamin E.

D — VITAMIN D

For strong straight bones. Is essential to the proper utilization of calcium and phosphorus. Store Summer Sunlight in your tissues to carry you through the cold months. Cooking results in appreciable loss of this vitamin.

FOODS RICH IN VITAMIN D

Fish-Liver Oils	Irradiated Foods (Breakfast foods, etc.)	Eggs
Fat Fish		Vitamin D Milk
Liver		Cod Liver Oil

G — VITAMIN G

Helps one to look youthful. Helps to halt early senility and give you vigor. Sometimes associated with Vitamin B. Cooking results in no appreciable loss to this vitamin.

FOODS RICH IN VITAMIN G

Liver	Cheese
Heart	Beef
Kidneys	Pork
Eggs	Veal
Milk	Fish

Note: Sometimes listed as B. (Riboflavin).

Nicotinic acid (niacin)—constituent of the B complex necessary for the prevention and cure of pellagra.

Found primarily in lean meats, milk, whole grain cereals, and eggs; chiefly the protective foods.

THE COOK AND THE VITAMINS

The vitamins that really count for you are those that reach the platter through the kindness of the cook. Sunshine travels some 90,000,000 miles to make growth possible. Animals work industriously to store vitamins in meat and dairy products. And then, a doxen feet from the dining room table, enormous quantities of vitamins come to an untimely end on the kitchen stove. Yet the rules for preserving vitamins in the kitchen are extremely simple.

1. Cook in small quantities of boiling water. (Use liquids in sauces, soups, stews, etc.). (B is not destroyed by ordinary cooking but does dissolve in water).
2. Cook as short a time as possible.
3. Cook vegetables and fruits whole when possible.
4. Cook vegetables and fruits with skins on as often as possible.
5. Avoid use of soda! Destroys many vitamins.
6. Serve fruits, greens and vegetables raw as often as possible.
7. Prepare chopped fruit and vegetable salads just before serving.

Dr. Fessenden In Talk Regarding Speech Lions Club

Giving a thumb nail version of a public address outline, Dr. Seth Fessenden of the West Texas State faculty spoke to the Lions Club last Thursday.

Dr. Fessenden's contention is that most individuals are potentially public speakers. Their main difficulty is that they do not know and practice some of the fundamental psychological principals to obtain and retain audience interest.

Audiences should be shocked into attention, the professor said, and should be held by the speaker's recognition of the ever present "ho, hum" and "so what" of the listeners.

He had been in the ordnance department of the Air Corps. He was a member of Tri Tau fraternity while attending West Texas State College.
